

5 MORE REASONS to protect your hands on the job ...

1 You won't get a faceful of your own blood when your fingers slip past the spot where the hand-guard used to be.

2 You'll always be able to scratch that

3 You'll never have to figure out what to do with the other glove.

4 You'll be able to applaud at your child's presidential inauguration.

5 Your boss won't start wondering what other workplace rules you're breaking.
